The translucency and beauty of the irises in oil on linen by Martin Truefitt-Baker epitomises the lightness of spirit and renewed appreciation that visitors to the gallery are experiencing as it has increased its opening to six days per week (Monday to Saturday 10am to 3pm). Martin started this painting during the weekend that would have been the Crickhowell Open Studios weekend in May and as such it is with great delight that two paintings of irises by Martin which reflect his skill at capturing colour and form without losing spontaneity have been added to the summer exhibition.

The summer exhibition will continue until early September and is being refreshed with new work on a weekly basis. A new collection of burnished pots by Christine Gittins sit very comfortably next to oil paintings by Louise Collis who has added vibrant views of Table Mountain and Llangorse lake to her collection of work already in the gallery. Louise never disappoints with her colourful and vibrant paintings, which capture the atmosphere of Welsh landscapes so well.

With visitors returning to the landscape of the Brecon Beacons and Black Mountains seeing the art that it inspires adds to the experience. The gallery's mix of ceramics, glass, jewellery, textiles and sculpture makes it an ideal place to appreciate and enjoy exceptional creativity in a beautiful space. The new visitcrickhowell.wales website which will shortly be launched will make planning a visit to the area even easier and will give a tempting taste of the gallery's offering with online sales.

YVONNE CARROLL

All three are available as original and hand printed linocuts Rabbits and Roses Summer Hare The Curlew's Call

Email:

carrollbooks@hotmail.com

Yvonne can be found as Monnowprints on Etsy, Instagram and Facebook.

Yvonne Carroll's prints reflect her interest and lifelong curiosity in all aspects of the natural world. Her wildlife subject matter is combined with, and becomes part of, the naturally occurring patterns of nature. The work is informed by her lifetime's love and study of the great traditions in printmaking and the printed image within art. She draws upon forty years of knowledge, experience and practice to produce these wonderful images.

Each print, although initially based on observation, drawing and much consideration will, through the hands on process of the block cutting process, gather it's own energy and direction.

Her process of drawing with the cutting tool is a free flowing and spontaneous act, a fluid, fluent and incredibly skilful activity that leads to images that are full of life and energy.

E: gorgeousglassltd@virginmedia.com

www.gorgeousglassltd.com

Angelina creates wall, window and free standing stained glass panels. Her work reflects the landscape architecture of her locality - Penarth, Cardiff Bay and the Vale of Glamorgan, however she has designed bespoke commissions on a wide range of subjects. Many of her panels include copper sheet and wire, together with traditional kiln fired painting and etching.

Angelina designs, makes, teaches and displays in a co-owned studio/gallery - Glass By Design, Penarth.

4. NEIL CARROLL

Email: neiljamescarrollartist@gmail.com
@rocarrollart on twitter and Instagram

Neil Carroll's paintings turn the ordinary into extraordinary. His vibrant palette captures those liminal moments when the often too familiar is transformed by nature before us. A Turner-esque obsession to experience his subject, sees him walking, and ultimately becoming part of the landscape through every hour, day, week and season. It is only through such close observation of his subject, changing minute by minute, that the prize of a fleeting moment of drama will be presented.

Following in his own way, the tradition of painters such as Terry Ilott, Tom Hughes, Ernest Zobole and John Selway whose friendship and tuition has shaped such an appreciation of his home ground. He invites us to look at and appreciate our everyday surroundings with a fresh and youthful eye.

 E: codglasspenarth@gmail.com
www.codglass.com

Cathy works in the medium of fused glass. She still feels the thrill of 'Christmas morning' every time she opens the kiln after firing. Her work often has an element of humour, colour & nostalgia (or reflects where her mind was wondering at that particular moment in time in the studio, prompted by songs & words on the radio!) She loves to do bespoke commissions, which are very personalised & will develop a twinkling of an idea into a finished piece.

You can find her work at Glass By Design in Penarth, which is a studio gallery she co-owns. She also teaches fused glass techniques from here.

"I have always been drawn to the ocean, the expanse of sky, sea and tones. The coast of Pembrokeshire has its own unique colour pallet of Prussian blues and Emerald greens to Payne's grey and translucent Burnt Sienna. The building of surface and texture evokes a tactile experience of sand, sea and rock. A sense of place and my relationship with that place, is at the heart of my practise."

Janet will be exhibiting her work at Picton Castle throughout August. Titled 'Colours of the Sea & Sky', her work can also be seen at Craft Renaissance in Kemys Commander.

The Giles Gallery!

This August, see something totally unique at The Giles Gallery. Professional textile artist, Melissa Warren is exhibiting her ‘Wrapper’ exhibition, a method, which creates textile landscapes. These extraordinary works of art are truly breathtaking. For those who haven’t heard of this process, Melissa explains:

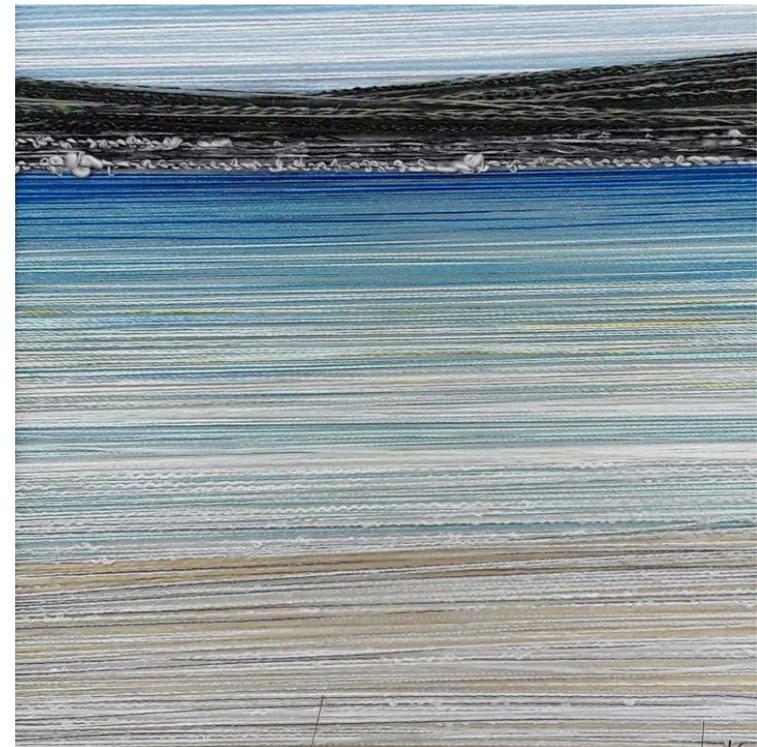

“I have a huge collection of yarns, being a textile artist/maker working with knitting machines. Using fine yarns, I can create 2D artworks, by wrapping, rather than knitting. Each piece is totally unique.

A collection of similar wrapped textile jewellery from a few years ago has caused me to revisit this, with new work, incorporating repurposed found materials too.”

The exhibition runs from Saturday 8th August - Saturday 29th August 2020, 10am - 4pm.

Cardiff Summer Art and Craft Festival 2020

Working Street, Cardiff City Centre

Saturday 8 to Saturday 22 August

Trading Hours: Monday to Saturday 10am to 5.30pm
Sundays 10am to 4.30pm

Craft*folk's Cardiff Summer Festival is an outdoor event set in Working Street in the heart of Cardiff City Centre. After months of no events we are so pleased to be able to return to the city centre with our wooden stalls and hope that you will be able to drop in as we have taken every step to ensure that your visit to our makers will be a safe and enjoyable one. Resplendent with colour and housing an eclectic mix of makers bringing you the best of their artwork, craft work, wine, liqueurs, flavoured gins, chocolate truffles, handmade fudge, French macarons and chocolate brownies accompanied by Llanfaes ice cream.

Although we are open from Saturday 8 to Saturday 22 August not everyone is taking part for the full 15 days so if you are planning to visit a specific maker please go www.craftfolk.com and click on August for full details of all our talented makers together with their trading dates.

It has been a really difficult year for everyone and we are so happy to finally be in a position to welcome our students again.

Our Autumn programme is due to be launched on the 8th of August and will be available to book online from that date onwards.

We have planned our Autumn programme with some new measures in place to allow us to comply with social distancing at the Studio. We will be reducing our maximum number of students per class from 12 down to 6 to allow everyone their own table to work on. We will also have several other measures in place such as hand sanitizers, a one way in and out system to avoid busy areas and of course stringent cleaning procedures to ensure everything is as safe as possible to welcome you back.

We are running our usual range of classes including weekly morning, afternoon and evening classes with Jantien Powell (plus guest tutors), monthly watercolour, pencil drawing, oil painting, acrylic and pastel painting classes, our life drawing and portrait clubs and of course our weekend workshops.

You will find a great selection of topics and medium to choose from such as mixed media with Alison C Board, "Dala-Art" with Chris Carter, animals in soft pastel with Carol Kibble, semi-abstract cityscapes with Kip Kavallares and much more.

Due to the limited numbers in each class, places are likely to book up quickly. The best way to book is via our website: www.chapelcottagestudio.co.uk but please feel free to get in touch with any queries.

Please be aware that we will be following government guide lines and any changes to the regulations regarding movement and meeting of people, may cause changes or even cancellations to our programme.

We very much look forward to welcoming you back to Chapel Cottage Studio! To make sure you get a copy of our new programme as soon as it is available, make sure that you sign up to our mailing list at:
